The 1958 President
Washington Senior High School
St. Paul, Minnesota

Foreword . . .

...News flash...cub reporters who entered Washington pressrooms in 1954 are ready to submit their final copy to the sophomores and juniors who are the ones who will carry on in the future.

...Flash...if the example is good the cubs of '56 and '57 will become full fledged reporters in 1959 and 1960.

...Flash...watch for big stories by these new reporters...Tip...major heading, "Their Future Lives."

...Flash...what will be the response given by these new cub reporters of Washington's pressrooms who are now ready to take over bigger assignments?

...Flash...we are now submitting our final copy as seasoned Reporters. The stories of the future at Washington are yours.

Dedication . . .

Approximately 30 years ago Mrs. Ruby Gould entered the halls of Washington High School, to become girls physical education instructor. During our senior year she retired and we are pleased to be able to dedicate this President to someone who has contributed so much to Washington High School. As our physical education instructor, she carried out her job faithfully and diligently. She did a more than thorough job teaching her pupils the way to a happy life through better health, fair play, and getting along with their fellow man. This wonderful lady also gave something to Washington High that she will ever be remembered for. That is the starting of the Girls Athletic Association. Under her guidance GAA has become a vital part of Washington's extra curricular activities. During her years at Washington she has been a friend who has given constant help to the girls. She has gained respect, genuine affection, and the life long friendship of many of her pupils. Her warmth, kindness, friendliness, and understanding are qualities which people will always find present wherever she may go.

As She takes leave of her duties as physical education teacher at Washington we bid her farewell, but not goodbye. For, in spending many years at Washington and giving so fully of herself, she has become a permanent part of this our school. She will always be with us in memory, there, in that small office, waiting and watching over the girls of Washington High School. As a final token of our esteem and to show our appreciation to a very fine lady and teacher, we wish to dedicate our 1958 President to Mrs. Gould.

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL

Every newspaper has its editor-in-chief who keeps the paper running smoothly. Here at Washington Senior High School our "editor-in-chief" is Mr. Gordon E. Miniclier, principal. He keeps the "editions" of Prexies up-to-date by bringing in new ideas and procedures from his contacts on the St. Paul city-wide committee and many summer and winter workshops.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

The genial but efficient "managing editor" at Washington is Mr. George Kirkeby, assistant principal. He helps cub reporters stay in line and get their "copy" in on time, and even gives the veteran reporters a guiding hand at times. He also is active on city committees and in workshops, giving fresh ideas when they are needed in the school program.

COUNSELORS

Administering tests to check students' abilities, progress, and interests is the main job of Washington's counselors, Miss Constance Howe and Mr. Jess Wichman. Through guidance towards scholarships they also give veteran Prexie "reporters" an assist in getting into specialized fields best suited to their talents.

Four years ago Mr. Robert Turner entered the Washington High School press rooms as an assistant editor.

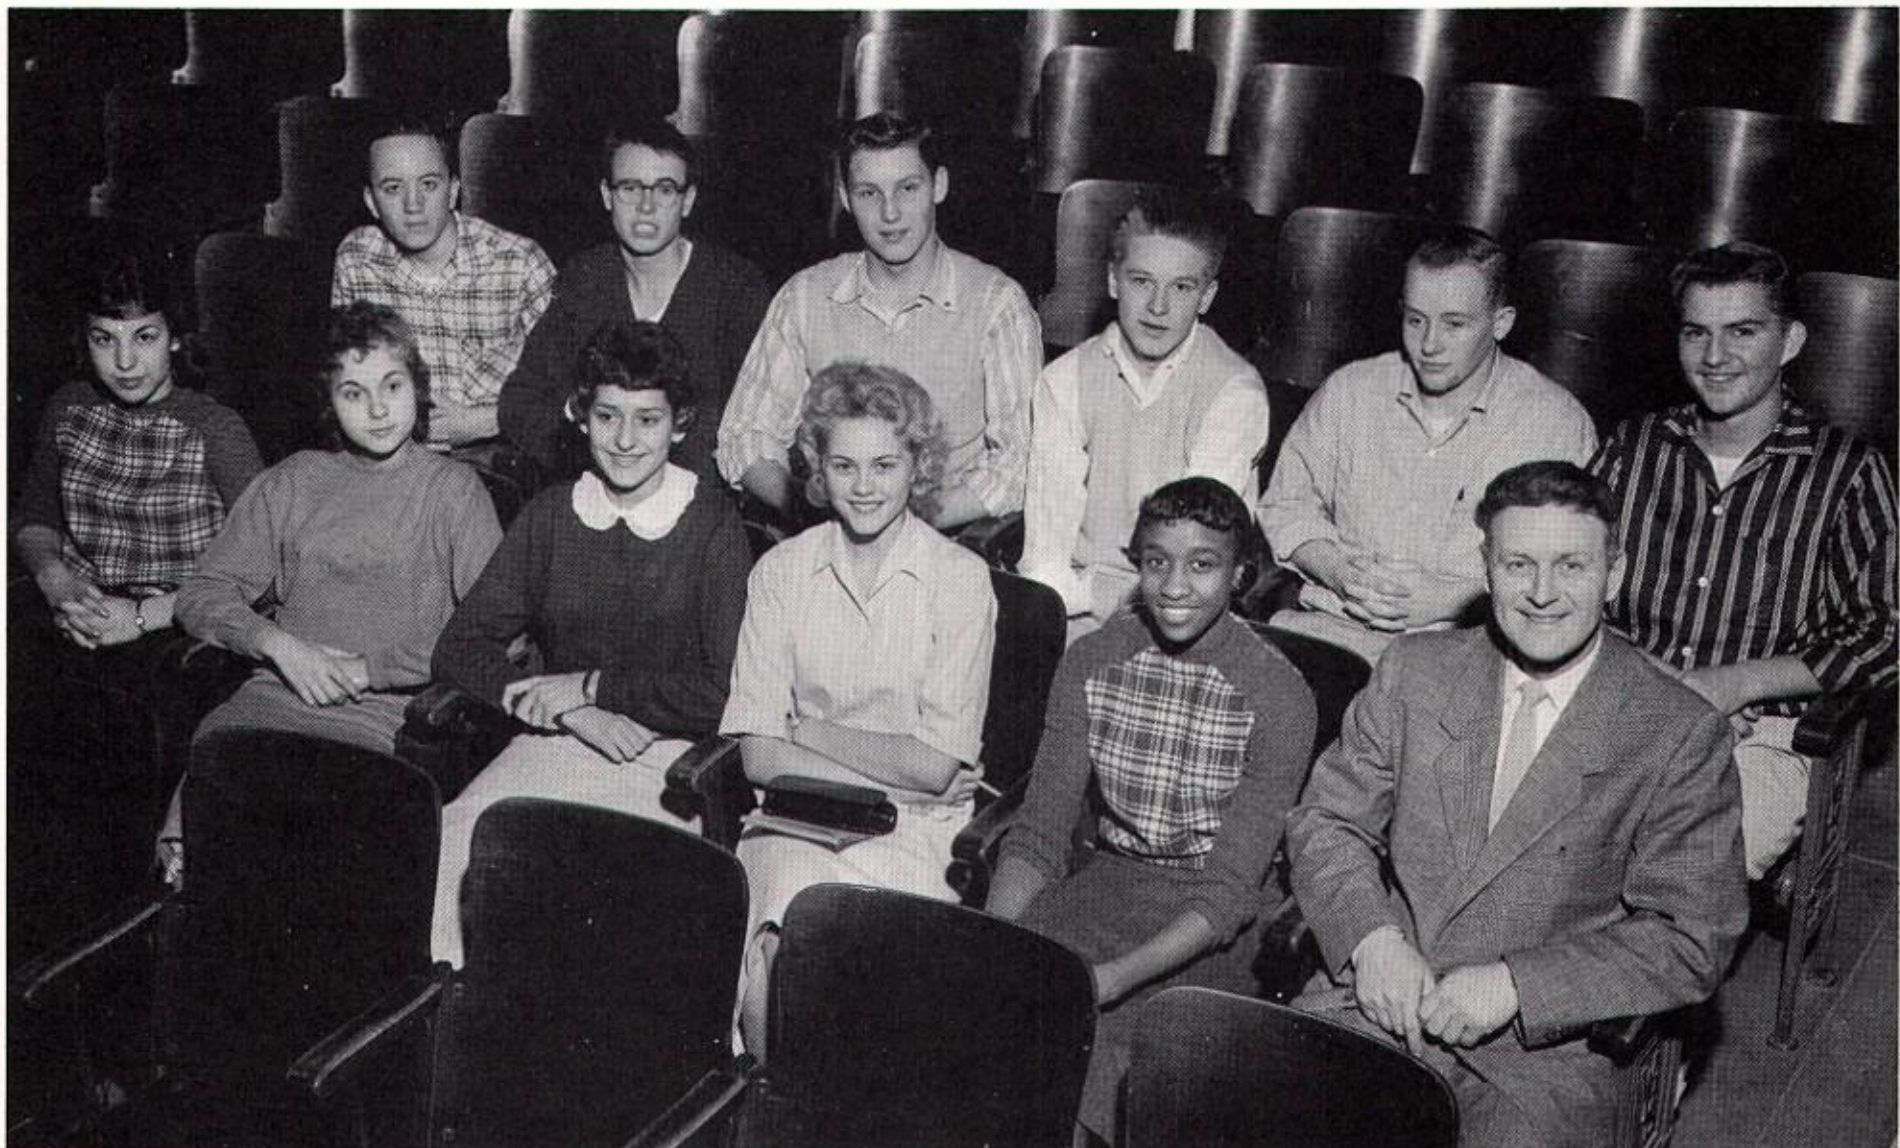

Besides becoming a very informative editor, in his association with the cub reporters, he also became a coach for Washington's hockey team.

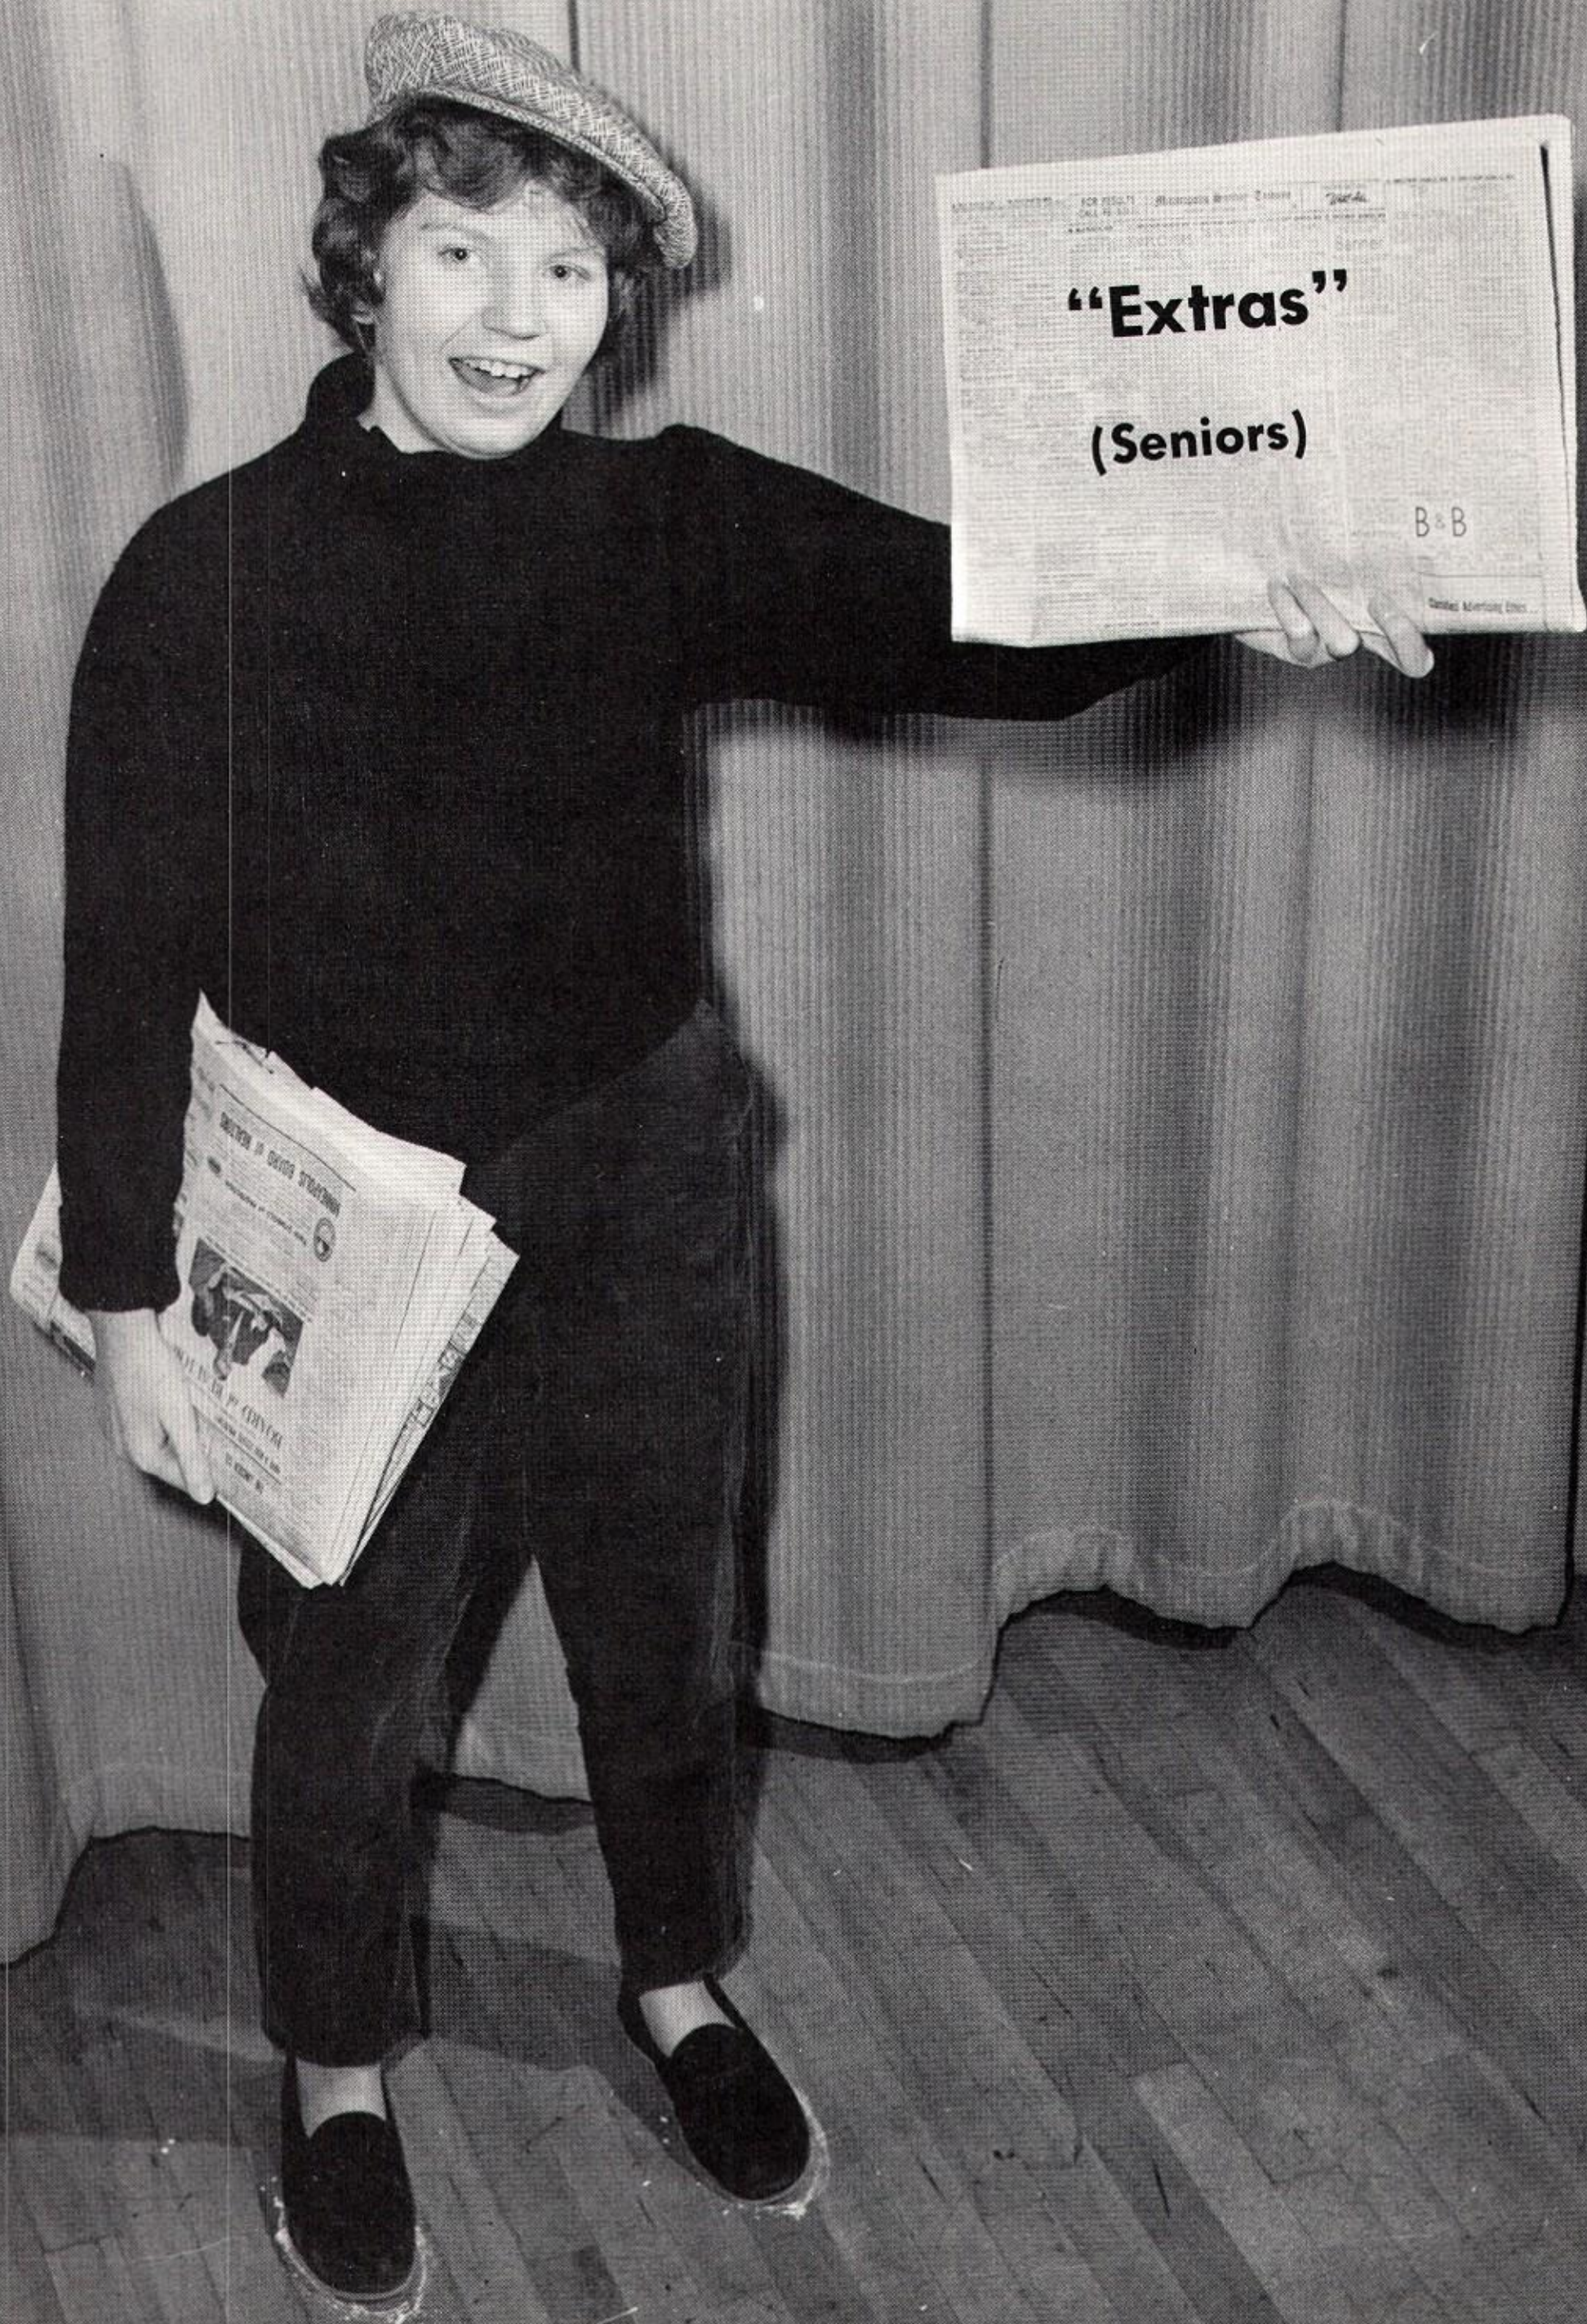

Two years ago, along with his other duties, he became our part time student council adviser. His work there made him even more popular with the cubs. Since then, he has been affectionately called "Pop." Turner. This year "Pop" became a full time student council advisor, "editing" this year's student council activities and helping us to enjoy them more.

Council Executive Board

During 5th period each day a group of students meet, for credit, to plan the activities of the student body. This is the executive board of the student council, the student governing body of the school. President this year was Kurt Dey; vice-president, Sandy Fudenburg; secretary, Pat Simpson; and treasurer, Dick Portner. This group has worked hard all year to sponsor such events as Snow Day, Operation St. Kris, Sophomore "Get Acquainted Dance," Christmas Seal Drive, and, something new this year after an absence of three years, individual pictures of the members of all three classes.

ROW 1: S. Fudenburg, J. Kubitschek, M. Pojar, P. Simpson, S. Finney, Mr. Robert Turner.
ROW 2: J. Weber, J. Griffith, F. Thunhorst, R. Portner, K. Dey, D. Dahlquist.

Four years ago a new group of cub reporters (freshmen) entered the pressroom (Washington High School) for the first time. Before them were four years of training which was a requirement for their own first by-line (diploma). This is the class of 1958.

Miss DeEtte Knowlton was appointed class advisor and has been a constant help and guide to us. She was not only an advisor, but a friend to whom we could come when we were troubled. We wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for her help.

In general terms we were not any different from any previous classes. We elected officers and staged special events like all other classes before us. In our sophomore year we chose our first class officers: Don Kieger, president; Gerald Godfrey, vice president; Kurt Dey, secretary; and Corrine Ulbrich, treasurer.

In our junior year we chose a new set of officers: Dennis Gilson, president; Kathleen Zangs, vice president; Geraldine Trantham, secretary; and Kurt Dey, treasurer. We also sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, a very successful affair with the Theme "Dreams."

This brings us toward the end of our training; our preparation is nearly complete. We have one more year, this is the final step before our "by-lines."

As our officers this year we have chosen Patricia Hennessey, president; Micheal Alcott, vice president; Marcelia Orlando, secretary; and Marylyn Weber, treasurer.

Our Homecoming festivities were reigned over by Her Majesty Colleen Griffith and King Kurt Dey. Also in this full and final year we have presented our Senior Class Play, "Life with Father."

We entered the press room as cubs to complete our four years of training. Now we have our "by-line" and are ready to meet the dead line. This is not the end but the beginning. For now we will go forth into life to publish our own first editions.

In Memoriam . . .

In our four years at Washington we have made many friends, among them two who are no longer a part of the living body which makes up the senior class. These two people have been taken from us by a much stronger and wiser being than this earth has to offer. These two people we knew and loved. They were a part of our team, they each had a role to play until the day which was chosen for their departure. We think of them especially at commencement time.

DARLENE REINHARDT

DARLENE REINHARDT

Darlene, who was a small, delicate individual, was quite different from what you might expect. Here was a truly wonderful person. She was unusually gay and was always ready to join in the fun that was going on around her. She was always ready with a smile and said "Hello" when she passed you in the halls. She might have been compared to a warm spring day, cheerful and bright. Her personality was a blossom, sweet and overflowing with youth. This vibrancy she possessed never dwindled and in her presence it was always spring. She had many, many friends and on a spring day in 1955, the day of her departure, a shadow fell over Washington because of the loss of one of our life giving members.

We can truly say we are proud that we were able to give her some enjoyment in life. Only our Father knows the reason for taking away one whose spirit was always happy and whose presence always brought a beam of sunlight into our lives.

WILLIAM ZSCHOKKE

Bill, as he was known to us, was a quiet boy, not very talkative or physically outstanding and yet you know if you ever talked to him you knew that he was a special being. After you got through his outer shyness you saw that he possessed a quality not many have. When he spoke to you he said his words slowly and deliberately. He always met your eyes squarely and listened attentively when you spoke to him. His words were always kind and his friendly way made you feel as though you were a special friend of his. He possessed a warmth which made you want to talk to him and be his friend. This warmth he had stemmed from his love of God, people, and life. This love of life was not expressed in gaiety and talkativeness. This was something you saw in his face and eyes. This was his goodness.

During our junior year Bill was taken from this earth and from us by the gentle hand of God. We do not question God's reason for this, but we miss Bill and remember him especially at the time of our graduation.

Juniors Try New Things

This year's junior class, with the guidance of their advisor, Mr. Daniel Hansen, sponsored several projects, some of these untried by previous classes.

The first was the annual Christmas card sale. It was the profits from this sale that make possible the gala Junior-Senior Prom held at the Lowry Hotel.

New projects for this year were the candy sale and the Junior Class Play. This was considered quite an accomplishment for the new cub reporters.

Last, but not least, the Juniors made the all important selections of their class rings. Taking on the responsibilities of leadership were the following officers: president, Pat Simpson; vice president, Aida Anderson; secretary, Donna Secord; and treasurer, Bonnie Hasse.

From the initiative shown by this class it is apparent to all the school that there is a promising group of senior reporters in the Washington Press Room.

Sophomores Promise 'Extras'

*They pour into their seats,
Little nonentities,
All the same*

Like so much batter in cake rings.

This year's sophomore class showed great promise of leadership and has already displayed their eagerness to plan and participate in school events.

In the Snow-Day assembly four members of the sophomore class, Carol Tako, Evelyn Erickson, Anita Cherry, and Adrian Hertog, planned and took part in a dramatization of the 32nd birthday of Washington High School.

While at Como Junior High School, Adrian Hertog was president, Joan Kubitschek, secretary, and Carol Tako and Don Dahlquist committee chairmen of the student council. This year at Washington Joan, Carol, and Don are on the executive board of the student council and Adrian is a homeroom representative. Certainly this shows a continued willingness to cooperate for the good of the whole school.

As a means of earning money for their class, the sophomores under the direction of Mr. Firmin Alexander, class adviser, staged the annual student-faculty basketball game.

The whole school is proud of this class and hopes the members will always show the good qualities that they have this year.

Good luck sophomores!

Camera Club

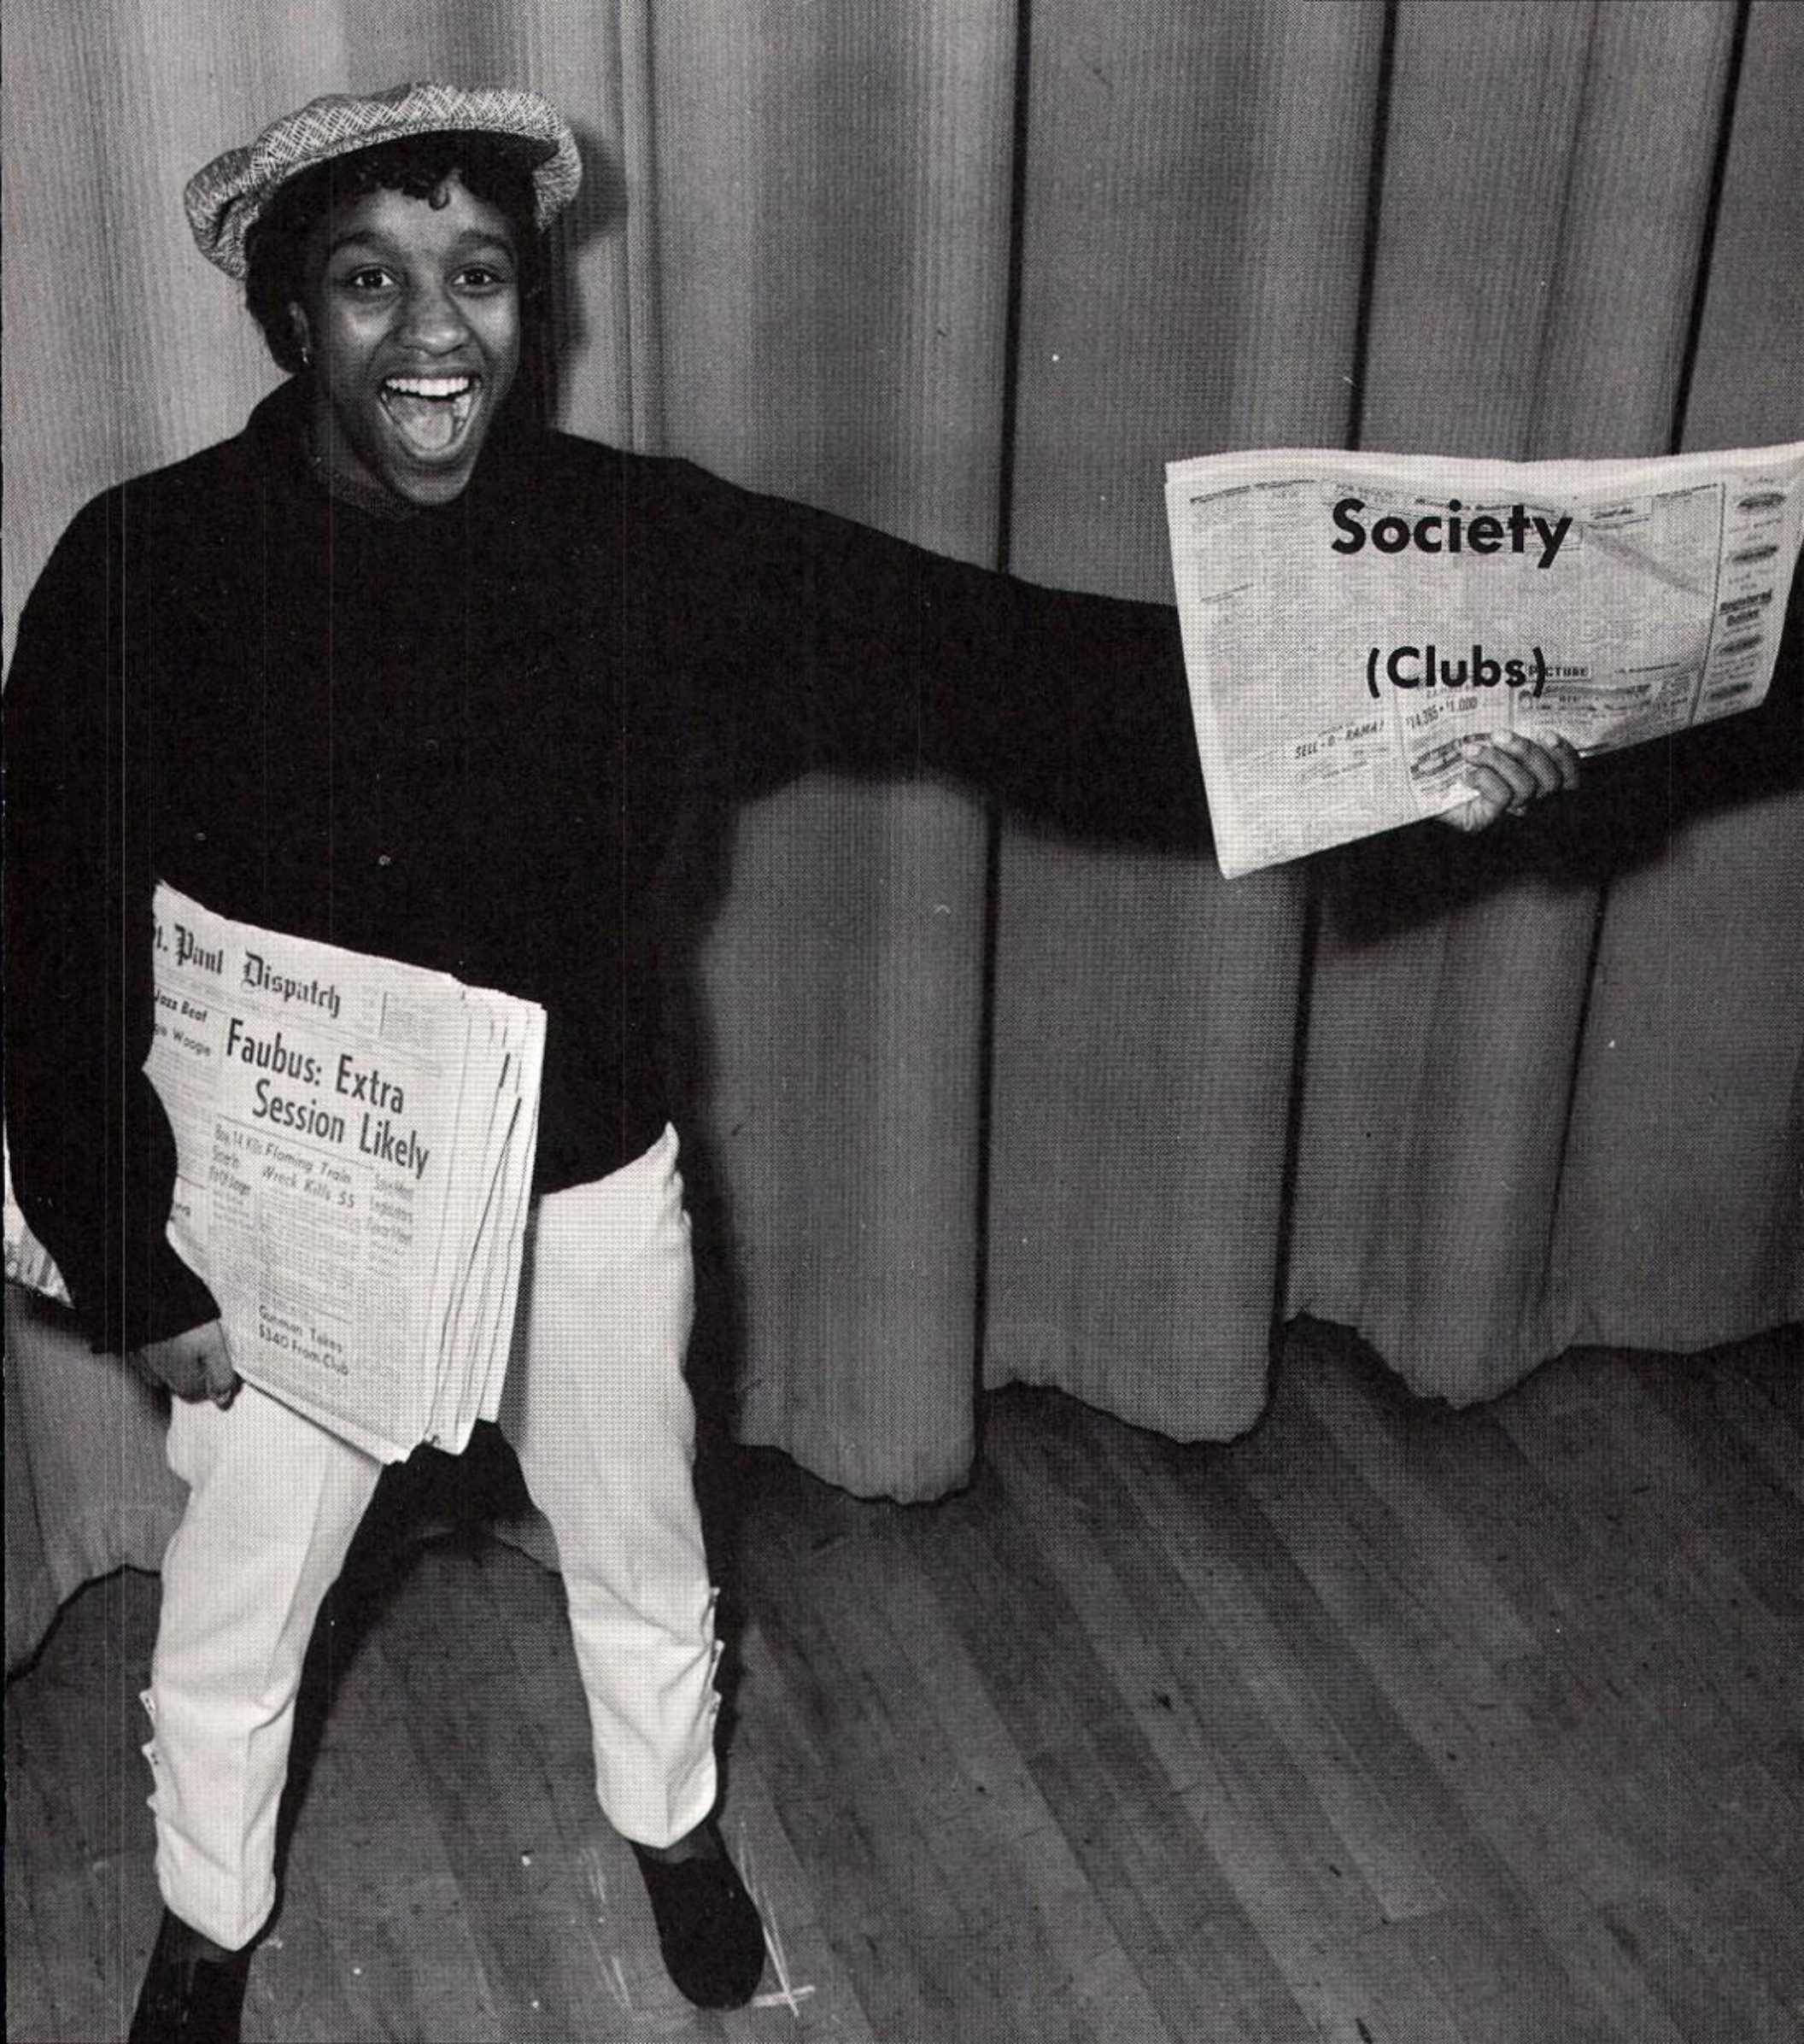

The Camera Club, under the direction of Mr. Elmer Bjornson, has been carrying out a variety of projects throughout the year. One of the first projects of the new members was the building of pin-hole cameras. The club has been taking pictures of the school activities which have been made available for school publications.

Officers were Don McCormack, president; Gesine Massel, vice president; Barbara Krinke, secretary; and Pat Leach, treasurer.

All members learn to develop and print their own negatives and to make enlargements.

1958 President Staff

A larger book, a new type of senior section, and an entirely new idea in a cover were only a few features of the 1958 President produced under Co-Editors Doris Roberson and Corrine Ulbrich. Judy Podjaski was the artist, and Elaine Krause was senior editor. The staff wishes to thank everyone else responsible for this book and it is hoped that students will find many years of enjoyment in going through it. Mr. Orlando Andvik and Mr. Firmin Alexander were the editorial and business advisors.

Surveyor Staff

Under the capable leadership of editor-in-chief Kathy Zangs, the Surveyor staff published twelve issues of the school paper during the year 1957-8. The rest of the staff responsible for keeping the students well informed on school activities, gossip, and otherwise were news editors, Pearl Johanson and Sandy Tipcke; sports editor, Don Kieger; editorial writer, Elaine Krause; columnists, Eileen Whalen, Lily Nickos, Jerry Lalla; social editor, Colleen Griffith, Marylyn Weber; business manager, Dick Brady; typists, Joyce Behrendt, Corrine Ulbrich, Donna Jandl. The advisor is Mr. Orlando Andvik.

Creative Writers

The Creative Writing Club is well on its way this year. The major project, other than writing stories, themes, and poems, is compiling a student directory for students, which will be issued in the spring. In their spare time club members write short stories and poems, some of which appear in the Surveyor. Officers were Sandy Finney, president; Anne Pearman, secretary; and Beverly Anderson, treasurer. Mrs. Mary Hafner is club advisor.

Sketch Club

The Sketch Club is fun as well as educational. Their main project is sketching, both for pleasure and worth while projects. During the year some of the members took a major part in the drawing and painting of the wonderful back drop for the operetta. Officers were President, Marlene Rotter; Vice President, Dave Tonia; and Secretary, John Heffern. Miss Bessie Mulholland is club advisor.

Inspiring Leader Directs Prexie Band

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Gruenfelder the Washington High School Band performs in many school activities including the annual Christmas Concert and the gala Sno-Day Assembly, not to mention many others. Dressed smartly in their uniforms, the Prexie Band stole the show at the Homecoming football game as they were parading around the field during the half-time.

At other school athletic events it has inspired both the players and the spectators with the will to fight to the finish. Despite the small size, the band performs with a great deal of precision and ease.

Their director inspires the members with trumpet playing of a quality that drew praise in the nationally known magazine "High Fidelity."

Washington Senior

One group of which the cubs, reporters, editors and all those concerned in Washington's pressrooms are proud is the "A" Choir. This group has given much in the way of entertainment to the students and public in concerts and programs. The choir drew capacity audiences, and students in the organization really seem to feel that the effort is very worthwhile. The operetta, "Pickles," was brilliantly and amusingly staged and voices blended together almost perfectly for the traditional Christmas and Spring Concerts.

JERRY LALLA

High School's "A" Choir

The choir is under the direction of Miss DeEtte Knowlton, who has given much of her time and effort to make the group the success that it was. The officers this year were Jerry Lalla, president; Mary Jane Pojar, sec.-treas.; Audrey Tollas and Clarence Wittman, robe custodians. Donna Secord took over the job as accompanist for the choir this year and gained experience which will really benefit the choir next year, too.

Homeroom Representatives

Every year each homeroom elects a representative and alternate as representatives to the student council meetings. These representatives attend the meetings and work with the board to plan school activities. They then report to their homerooms the outcome of the meetings and work hard to see the decisions of the council are carried out. Any ideas or suggestions a student might have are presented to the council by the students' homeroom representative or are dropped in the suggestion box.

Historical Society

Under the direction of Miss Mary O'Keefe, members of the Historical Society perform the painstaking job of preserving the records of Prexie happenings during the current year and of more than 4000 alumni of Washington.

A major role of the Historical Society is helping plan orientation for new students by giving information from their files about Washington High's history, tradition, and unusual events from the past.

Biology Club

The Biology Club is composed of students who are interested in nursing, biology, and all phases of medicine. The activities of the club are quite varied and many include everything from conducting experiments to embedding specimens in plastics. Some other things the members do are take blood samples, take field trips, and have guest speakers. The main objective of the club is to create an interest in science and biology and to form a chapter of the Minnesota Junior Academy of Science. The advisor is Mr. Byron Gibbs, and the officers were President, Joan Schadl; Vice President, Frances Leuer; Secretary-Treasurer, Aida Anderson.

Chem-Math Club

In the Chemistry Club the members do experiments of interest to them which are not covered in class or students do not have time for. These may be in the form of projects or mystery experiments which are sometimes used as entertainment in assemblies.

In the Math Club number systems other than the common ones are covered. Also computer systems such as Univac are explained and a general idea of how they operate by a mathematical system called Booleau Algebra is presented. Mr. Robert Ryan is Advisor.

Washington's High-Spirited Pep Club

The Washington pressrooms are very fortunate to be backed, in their sports section, by a wonderful group called the Pep Club. This organization has stood behind our teams and cheered them on to many a victory. The enthusiasm they arouse spreads to other departments, too.

The Pep Club is headed by Mr. Robert Turner, student council advisor, hockey coach, teacher and all-around friend.

His peppy personality would give a boost to any organization and the Pep Club appreciates his leadership. This group is mainly interested in boosting Washington's school spirit, not only in athletics but in other activities and in general. The club is the largest in the program at Washington. As a trained group knowing new cheers, the members help spread new yells and routines at assemblies.

This is a club from which good constantly comes. This club is one of mercy and goodness. Under the direction of Mr. Daniel Hanson, the Red Cross club visits various hospitals to decorate for parties and special holidays, or to take down decorations from previous doings. They also carol at different hospitals and make the children and other people feel happy and not bed-ridden during the time they enertain. The members help on bloodmobiles and work at the Red Cross Center stuffing envelopes, sticking labels on bottles of blood plasma, and helping wherever needed. The members give up their free time to do these projects, but they get a feeling of satisfaction from helping others who are less fortunate.

Commercial Club

This active organization at Washington has as its purpose the promoting of interest in the many fields of business. Open to juniors and seniors, the club gives practical information about office jobs and machines to students at regular meetings with representatives of business fields and up-to-date movies on various related topics presenting materials.

All of the activities are directed by Miss Margaret Wallblom, adviser, who has willingly given her time and effort to make this club interesting and worthwhile. Officers for the year 1957-1958 are President Janice Koch, Vice President Carol Tesch, and Secretary-Treasurer Alice Widderski.

Occup.-Relations Club

The Co-operative Part-Time Training class at Washington is in its fourth year as an organized state affiliated club under the direction of Miss Ursula Sweeney. The club's purpose is to discuss better business practices and to gain practical knowledge. Students in the club all have part-time jobs under the supervision of Miss Ursula Sweeney, director.

The elected officers were as follows: Roberta Law, president; Wayne Schultz, vice-president; Ann Marinkov, secretary; Nancy Beyer, treasurer; Ilona Becker, parliamentarian; Judy Patnode, historian.

Future Homemakers

Having fun as well as learning are the members of Future Homemakers. The girls, under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Norden, learn to develop themselves in sewing, cooking, home decoration, and child care. FHA also sponsors activities for fun and advancement by taking part in the homemaking contests at the State Fair. Every year FHA sends a member to an FHA convention at the University of Minnesota. The group has won several awards at the state fair. Officers were Pearl Johanson, president; Marcelia Orlando, secretary; Colleen Griffith, treasurer.

Future Teachers

Students who plan to make teaching a career compose the Future Teachers of America Club. The interests of this group span from kindergarten and elementary teaching through junior and senior high school teaching.

The group carries out its projects with the guidance of Mr. Robert Turner, advisor. The main project of the club is to send its members to various nearby schools to sit in on and even take over the classes. The group then discusses what it has learned, giving the members a look into their futures.

Officers of the club were president, Jerry Weber; vice president, Judy Podjaski; secretary, Judy Thompson; and treasurer, Pat Hennessey.

Washington's Cheerleaders

One of the most active and hard-working groups at Washington High School is the cheerleaders. Mornings before school and many hours after school are spent by this vivacious group practicing new yells and thinking up new ways of keeping the school spirit high. Captained this year by peppy Pat Hennessey, these girls have done much at assemblies, and athletic events and have really been an asset to the school. Besides the "A" squad cheerleaders, there is a smaller group, the "B" squad cheerleaders, who have added zest to the junior varsity games and filled in for absent cheerleaders. The "B" squad cheerleaders will go on to become regulars the next year. Mr. Robert Turner is the advisor for the cheerleaders.

The Athletic Board

Mr. Archie Skalbeck, athletic director for Washington High School, acted as chairman of the athletic board during the 1957—58 school year. The board consists of athletic coaches and the assistant principal, and its job is to promote and direct the many-sided sports program offered Washington students during the year. Budgets, equipment, protection of athletes, promotion of activities are included in the duties handled efficiently by this group.

Washington's 'A' Gridders

A game but out-manned Prexie varsity football team lost all eight of its league games under their new coach, Mr. John McManus, and new assistant coach, Mr. Tom Pacholl. Speedy back Kurt Dey sparked the Prexie offense with many sensational touch-down runs, but did not have strong enough line support to lead the Prexies to victory. His running performance drew praise from coaches and veteran officials in the city.

Washington's 'A' Cagers

Washington High School's "A" Squad basketball team's 54-41 win over Monroe and a 50-47 win over Harding were their only wins in an eight game schedule, but an improved team lost a heart-breaker to Mechanic Arts, 48-46 in a double overtime game in the district 15 play-offs after leading all the way through the third quarter. On one of their warmest nights at the basket the Prexies still lost 60-50 in a game with Johnson. Captain Don Kieger was consistent high point man. Mr. Harry Nelson is the coach.

'A' Squad Hockey Team

Coach Robert Turner's "A" Squad hockey team skated to a seven win, two tie, seven loss season for 1957-58, losing to Johnson, 3-0, in the district 10 play-offs to end all victory hopes. The record was much better than Coach Turner expected in the league the team had to face, and was a tribute to a fighting team doing its best for Washington. Jerry Griffith made All-City and is the last Premie puckster in Washington's history to play hockey four years, having started as a freshman. Bobby Keran and Griffith were co-captains.

Washington's Varsity Nine

Washington's 1957 baseball team, defending State Champions, lost out in the second game of the district 15 play-offs to Wilson, 7-1. The Prexies were short on pitching strength, having one pitcher to pitch three games in five days. The Prexie's defeated Murray and Monroe and then got dumped by Wilson. The team was captained by Tom Daulton and Tom Sager. The Prexies were paced by all-city centerfielder Don Kieger and all-city third baseman Tom Daulton. Mr. Harry Nelson is the coach.

Gymnastic Team

With a record of three wins and five losses, Washington's 1957-58 gymnastic team ended its season sixth in the St. Paul league. Sophomore Russell Schoeller went to the state meet in the parallel bars and the mats, while Richard Teele, Clarence Wittman, and Richard Portner were stalwarts also during the season. Mr. John McManus is the coach.

ROW 1: R. Schoeller, F. Reed, T. Kresko, D. Krieger, R. Teele. ROW 2: R. Portner, K. Katzenmaier, C. Wittman, D. Drackert, J. Clare, Mr. John McManus.

Cross-Country

With a larger turn-out than he has had in recent years, Coach Daniel Hansen brought his cross-country squad up to where they were losing by the smallest of margins. In their four losses, the stand-out single performance was Dick Flipp's second place against Johnson. Flipp, Bob Sylvester, and Roger Wadell went to the city meet.

ROW 1: Mr. Byron Gibbs, D. Fitzgerald, K. Katzenmaier, J. Schultz, G. Ash, G. Winger, G. Stockwell, R. Flipp, T. Patsy, R. Portner, R. Menier.

Tennis Team

An inexperienced but eager tennis team under Coach Byron Gibbs won one out of eight conference contests during the 1957 season, but returning intact for 1958, the group promises a better record. Ronald Menier was the top individual player, and Dick Portner and Gary Ash were co-captains.

Varsity Track Team

Washington's track team had its best season in more than five years by gaining three wins against two losses. The relay team won all five meets and broke the school record. The boys setting this record were Kurt Dey, Tom Davenport, Jim Hammerlind, and Marty Strecker. Kurt Dey was top point getter on Coach Allen Cuthbert's 1957 squad.

ROW 1: S. Sarfolean, R. Roelofs, F. Neumann, T. Davenport, P. Neirad, J. Syverson. ROW 2: Mr. Allen Cuthbert, G. Weber, K. Dey, W. Lambert, R. Couture, R. Ronquist, J. Spannbauser, M. Streckerr, J. Hammerlind, R. Olson.

Varsity Golf Team

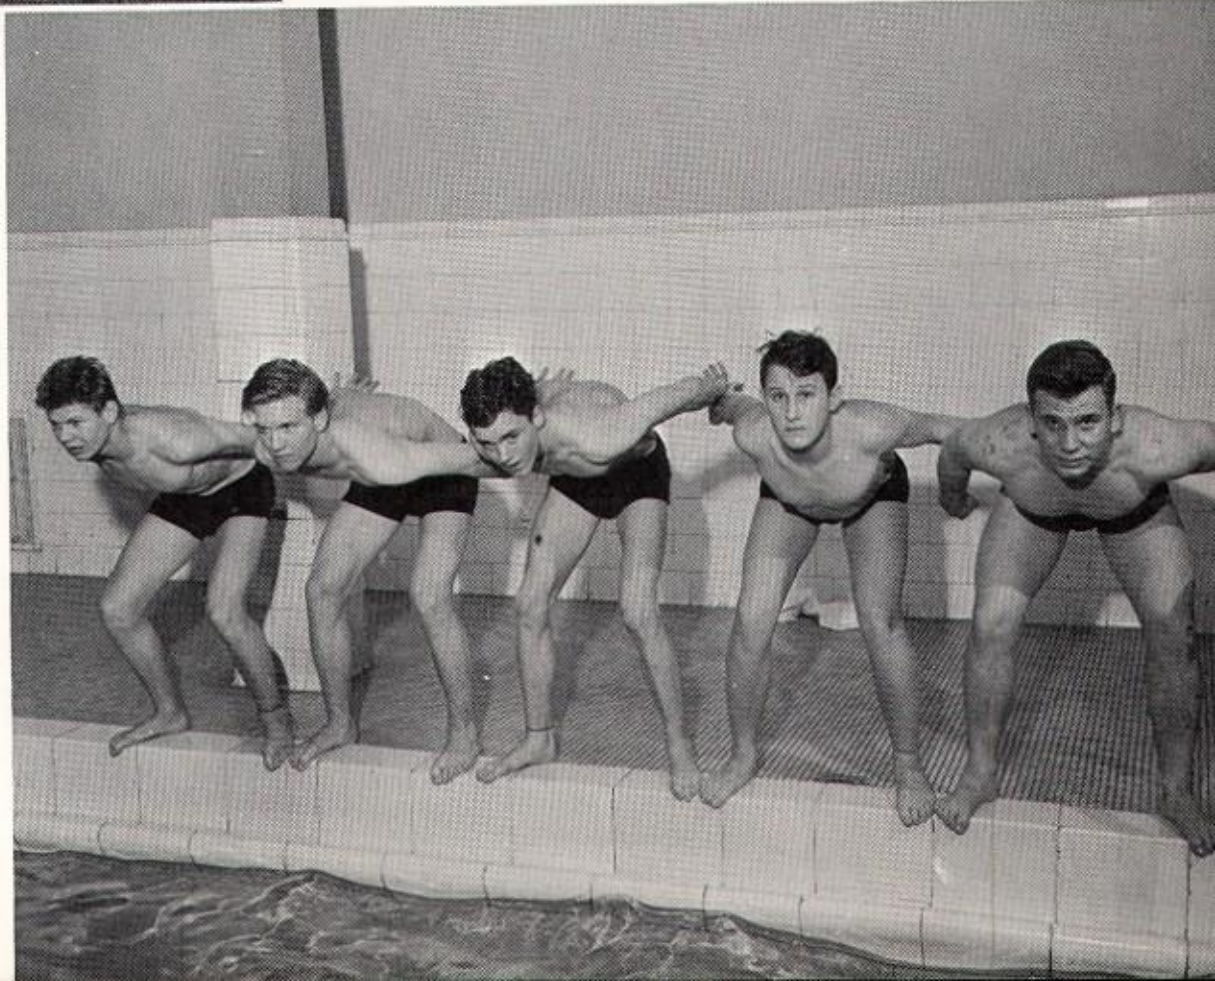

Jerry Ficocello, captain, placed eleventh in the all-city qualifying round to earn the title of outstanding player on the Prexie golf team. A 14—1 triumph over Mechanic Arts was the one victory out of eight matches won by Coach Clifford Ingwell's 1957 team.

ROW 1: F. Nettleton, E. Wadell, T. Kapaun, T. Thunhorst, S. Sarfolean.

ROW 1: J. Ficocello, N. Dixon, G. Bond, D. Hayden, Mr. Clifford Ingwell, D. Kratt, G. Sietz, T. O'Malley.

Swimming Team

A small but active swimming team led by high-point man Tom Kapaun ended their season with a 4—4 record, the best in recent years at Washington. Tom scored 76 points out of a possible 86 for the year, and placed fourth in the city finals in the 400-yard freestyle. He has four letters and was co-captain with Floyd Nettleton.

'B' Squad Gridders

A promising, good-sized "B" squad football team finished the season with a 1—3—1 record, coming from behind to defeat Wilson, 21—13, for their one win. Fleet-footed Johnny Fiandaca and Don Weber, backs, broke away for some sensational gains during the season, while a fighting line opened the necessary holes in the defense.

Junior Cagers

With the smallest, lightest squad in many years, coach Robert Ryan's "B" Squad basketball team had the roughest season on record, losing nine games and winning none. The boys never gave up even in the face of discouraging results against stronger teams. Adrian Hertog showed promise and was a constant spark to the game but inexperienced group.

ROW 1: J. Green, L. Mastel, J. Bloyer, J. Clare, K. Blum, T. Radke. ROW 2: Mr. Robert Ryan, D. Bowers, K. Kneer, A. Hertog, J. Neubeck, J. Hodge, K. Nord, R. Anderson.

ROW 1: G. Ficocello, J. Tschida, L. Lundstrom, D. Bohaty, T. Sjerven, W. Olson. ROW 2: Mr. Daniel Hansen, D. Drackert, D. Dunford, J. Pate, J. Tollefsbol, H. Van Rueden, P. Bliss.

Junior Hockey Squad

After a promising 5 win, 3 loss season, coach Dan Hansen's "B" Squad hockey team dropped a playoff game against Johnson, 3—0. Harold Van Rueden, Dick Bohaty, Jim Tschida, Wes Olson, and Jim Tollefsbol show strong "A" Squad potential, and the others improved rapidly during the season and were willing to learn all they could.

ROW 1: M. Behnke, C. Ulbrich, B. Mutch, D. Rotter, M. Orlando, S. Jacobs, S. Finney, A. Anderson. ROW 2: M. Muth, C. Simpson, J. Podjaski, J. Behrendt, V. Zopfi, P. Angle, M. Weber, D. Shebesta, D. Secord.

G. A. A. 'W' Club

Members of the Girls' "W" club are a select group of GAA members who have been active enough during three years to earn the required number of points in various sports and activities to qualify for membership. Sharon Klemz was president of the group, and members were honored at the annual spring banquet to which Prexie alumnae from many years back were invited.

Washington's G. A. A. Executive Board

Mrs. Ruby Gould, for many years the much-loved director of the Girls' Athletic Association, retired at mid-year and was replaced by Mrs. Virginia Bauman, a native of St. Paul. Mrs. Gould was honored upon retiring from the leadership of one of Washington's largest and most active organizations.

Of great help to the new director, Mrs. Bauman, were the above members of the GAA Board, who assisted in keeping the program going smoothly. Offices were held by the following girls: Marcelia Orlando, president; Sharon Klemz, vice president; Aida Anderson, secretary-treasurer; Janice Koch, recording secretary; Pat Thell, minor sports; Donna Secord and Frances Leuer, fieldball; Genevieve Handt and Carol Tauer, volleyball; Sandra Finney and Pat Angle, basketball; Audrey Tollas and Sharon LaRue, softball; Jean Langenberger, Rap-in-wax; Sandra Fudenberg and Pat Simpson, social committee; and Sharon Klemz, "W" Club.

Final Edition . . . 1958

The Anniversary Issue is off the press now and out on the newsstands. At 2:00 P.M. Friday, the 13th day of June 1958, the editors, co-editors, pressmen, reporters, reporters, copy boys and ad-men, left the Washington pressroom, some forever, others until a new year begins. But before we put the Edition to bed, we took a last look at the final headlines.

We the veterans knew we were saying good-by forever, but we also knew we would never forget. . . good luck, cubs!
